

Outstanding Youth Award

As an individual who has made a significant contribution to the prosperity and the quality of life at the Lake of the Ozarks; and as an individual who has demonstrated exceptional leadership and service for the Lake area over a period of years,

Shawn Campanini

Is hereby recognized by the Camdenton Area Chamber of Commerce

A singer/songwriter, Shawn Campanini, started playing publicly in the community three years ago and then professionally in the summer of 2011. He has recently released his first album, Chasing Echoes. Shawn served as judge and participated in various music competitions and events around the lake. He also actively strives to give back to the community by supporting fund-raising and charitable organizations. As an indicator of his dedication to community involvement, this year alone, Shawn has played 48 gigs, in 29 different venues.
